

JEANNE D'ARC
CREDIT UNION

Texting Disclaimer

Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union offers members the opportunity to communication via text messaging. If you choose to text our Member Contact Center, you are entering into the agreement detailed below.

By initiating texting to 978-452-5001, you are opting-in to our text messaging program, and are providing consent for us to reach you via text for communication, fraud alerts, and other member related communications on your provided mobile phone number. To STOP receiving text messages from Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union simply Text Stop to 978-452-5001.

By enrolling you certify you are the person who is legally responsible for all use of the accounts, and have agreed to all terms and conditions of use for the text messaging services.

You understand that you can enter into a one-on-one text conversation to ask questions or resolve issues or other services and content deemed appropriate. Account information such as account number or personal identification numbers should never be provided by you or requested from you via text messaging.

Data and message rates may apply so please contact your cell phone carrier for additional information regarding your text messaging plan/ coverage. Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union is not responsible for any delays that you may experience during the transmission of any messages as this is based on the speed of your network provider.